Dear Parents,

July 20, 2017

We are conducting a simulation activity based on the election process of India for the students of class V. This will help the students to gain a proper understanding of the election process and the role played by the citizens in the formation of a government, election of the M.L.A.s, the Prime Minister and the President. The activity will last for two weeks wherein, the students will participate in the formation of different parties, drafting manifestos, campaigning and casting a vote. The final result of the election process will be declared on 2nd August, 2017 during school hours. You are requested to discuss the topic with your child at home. Your support is solicited in making this activity a success.

Thanks & Regards,

(Ms. Meenu Goswami)
