

NAME _____ CLASS IV _____

DATE - 14/04/2020

Let's Recall

Lifespan:Period of time for which a living thing lives

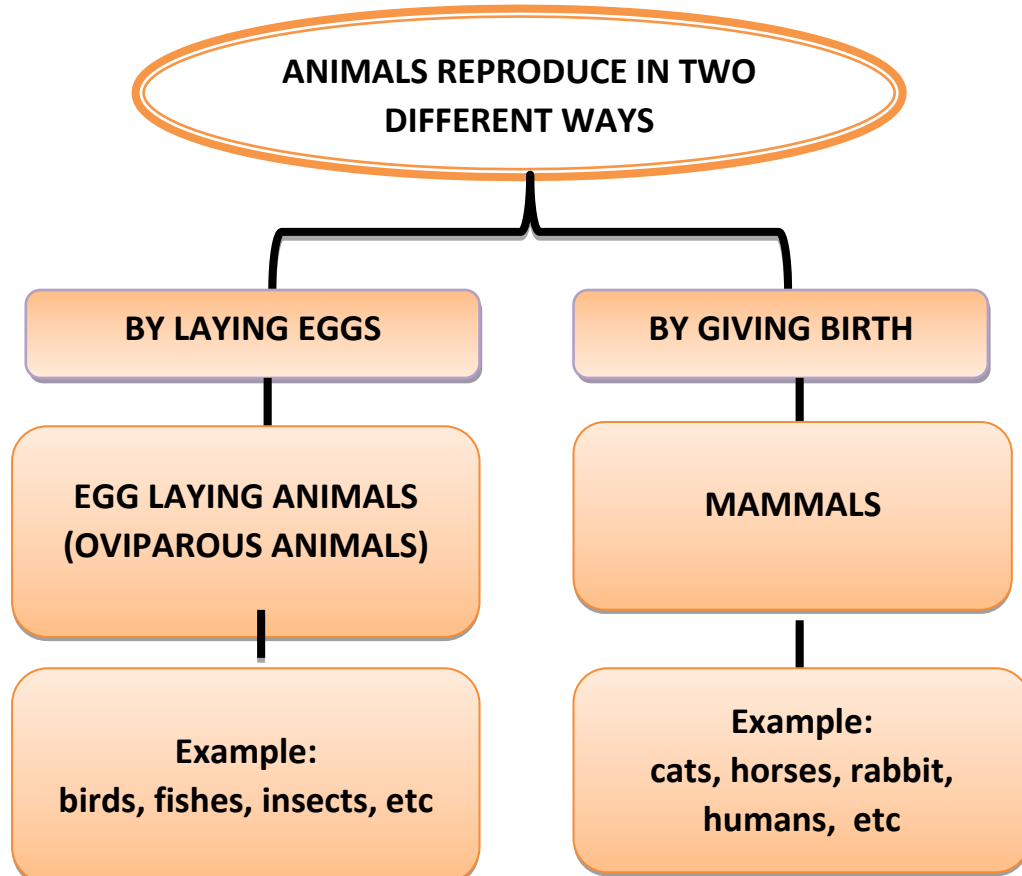

Reproduction: Producing more of its own kind

WHY DO ANIMALS REPRODUCE?

Animals reproduce:

- a. for life to go on
- b. so that animals of their kind do not disappear from the surface of the Earth.

HOW DO ANIMALS REPRODUCE? (To be done in the notebook.)

(To be done in the notebook.)

LET'S PRACTISE!

FILL IN THE BLANKS.

- A. All living things live for a certain period of time. This is called their _____.
- B. During their life span they grow, become an _____ and die.
- C. To continue life on Earth, living beings _____.
- D. Egg laying animals are also called _____.
- E. _____ give birth to young ones directly.
- F. The process by which living beings produce their young ones is called _____.

HELP BOX

reproduction

mammals

lifespan

reproduce

adult

oviparous animals

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING:

- What are the different ways in which animals reproduce?
- Name any two animals which lay eggs.
- How do human beings reproduce?

LET'S WATCH AND LEARN!!!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Mkvof36KpQ>

ANIMAL KINGDOM

Create your own 'Animal Kingdom' by making different animals using paper folding technique.

For example:

LIFE SKILL ACTIVITY

We are in quarantine but not birds. They still have to move around in search of food and water. So let's help them by placing a bowl of fresh water in the balcony/terrace every day to quench their thirst.

