

Class VIII - ENGLISH

Topic- DIARY ENTRY (Part II)

Dear Students

- This e-lesson aims at giving you a practice for writing a diary entry.
- Attempt the assignment questions in your English notebook.
- Remember- diary entry is not to be written in a box.
- The given assignment is in the form of a worksheet. Points to Remember have been added in this e-lesson to provide you with quick reference.
- A vocabulary exercise is also given to enhance your expression. The exercise is to be done in the English notebook.

Quick Recapitulation

The following is the format of a diary entry –

Day, Date	Time
Content (100-120words)
Name

NOTE- The left and right borders signify the margins of your notebook.

Points to Remember

- ✓ It is written in first person (I or we).
- ✓ A diary is generally written at day's end. This way the day's happenings can be recorded.
- ✓ The tone is informal. It is a record of your daily happenings and other important activities.
- ✓ It can include your personal secrets, joys, sorrows and fears.
- ✓ You can use simple past, present perfect and future tense depending on the description of the event.
- ✓ Word limit- 100-120 words.

ASSIGNMENT

(Practice questions)

Q1. You have just got the news that you topped in your final examination. You are overwhelmed with this news. Write a diary entry expressing your feelings and also the hard work that went into getting you to achieve this success.

Hints-

- Begin with describing the day- wondrous, delightful, magnificent, gorgeous.
- Continue with expressing your feelings- joyous, overwhelmed, on cloud nine, exhilarated, in seventh heaven, another feather to your hat.
- Describe your preparation-Toiled hard, burnt the midnight oil, went

1. Very clever- _____
2. Very sad- _____
3. Very noisy- _____
4. Very weak- _____
5. Very beautiful- _____

6. Very cute- _____
7. Very eager- _____
8. Very happy- _____
9. Very big- _____
10. Very boring- _____

BBPS Pitampura