Story Writing

Short Story writing helps kids to learn the basics of writing in English and grammar. Many kids prefer to write on topics given by others, what they did on summer or on picnic or some funny things.

Creative Writing allows us to use our own imaginations, things or experiences to come up with a good story. So children, it is time to wear your thinking caps and get into this joyful ride of story writing.

One day I was a going for a walk. The sun was about to set and there weren't many people in the streets. As I was walking down the road, I saw something lying near a big piece of rock. I bent down to pick it up. It was a purse and contained a lot of money. I looked around. Nobody was there. I wanted to keep the money. I knew no one had seen me picking up the purse. So, why couldn't I keep it? But then I thought about the poor man or woman who had lost it. Maybe it was the money they borrowed from a bank to marry off their daughter. Or it could be the money they needed to pay for a dear one's hospital bills. When such thoughts crossed my mind, I lost the desire to take the money. I realized that it was cruel. Also, it was immoral. It was not my money, so how could I take it? I felt that I must find the owner of the purse and hand it over to them. I searched the purse and found a diary in it. I opened the diary and luckily it had the complete address of its owner. I returned home and told everything to my parents. Together we went in search of the owner and handed over the purse and its belongings to him. I had guessed it right. The owner of the purse had borrowed the money for his daughter's marriage. He was very sad when he lost the purse and was hoping that some kind soul would find it and return it. When we reached his home and told him that we had found his lost purse, his joy knew no bounds. He thanked us profusely and as a token of appreciation rewarded me with a nice gift. I was a bit hesitant to accept the gift, but then my parents told me that I deserved it.

VOCABULARY ENHANCEMENT

We are all in the, habit to add the word 'very' to any descriptive word to convey something that is more than ordinary – e.g. We are very happy, very sad, something is very beautiful and so on.

We need to replace these with a single word to make the language more compact and richer.

We had done four such words in this section yesterday. Let us learn two more words today.

1) effortless: very easy

2)scorching: very hot

You must try and make use of these words while conversing with others.
