

NAME: _____ CLASS III: _____ DATE: 23.04.2020

COMPREHENSION

Read the given passage carefully and answer the given questions:

Arun is an honest vegetable seller. He has a stall in a market at Ansari Road. His vegetables are fresh and green. Arun's busiest time is from seven to ten in the morning. That is the time when there is a crowd of people in the market. During this time, his wife Gita is also at the stall to help him. Their twelve-year-old son also helps them on Sunday and during school holidays.

Arun sells all kind of vegetables; most of them come from Punjab and Haryana. Among these vegetables are spinach, onions, cabbage, peas etc. He also keeps the bunches of bananas and flowers on Sundays. He keeps all his money in a box because he is afraid of the gang of thieves.

Q1. What does Arun sell?

Q2. When is the market very busy?

Q3. When does the son help his father, Arun?

Q4. Why does Arun keep his money in a box?

Q5. Give the opposites of the following words:

1. honest
2. fresh

WORDLY WISE

Write synonyms (words with same meaning) of the given words.

thrilled

laundry

beautiful

whisper

dragged

NOTE: Dear parents, we have introduced this new segment called WORDLY WISE to enhance the students' vocabulary. The daily work given under this segment needs to be done in the Vocabulary Notebook which you must have got in the book set. In case, you haven't bought the book set till now, feel free to divide the LIFESKILLS diary made by you into two parts and use the second part as Vocabulary notebook.