

Class VI – ENGLISH

Topic 6 – Do/Does/Did (Verbs)(Part II)

Dear Students

- This lesson will give you an introduction to the verbs – Do/Does/Did - Questions (Part II)
- The lesson is divided into two parts. The first part is a lesson on Do/Does/Did. The second part is a vocabulary exercise for you to practice. (Not to be done in the English notebook)
- Go through the lesson carefully and attempt the exercise on Do/Does/Did given at the end, in your notebook.
- You need NOT copy the notes in your English notebook.
- The answers to the practice questions shall be shared in the next worksheet.
- Watch the YouTube link given in the previous e-lesson for a clearer understanding of the topic.

I. INTRODUCTION –

• DO / DOES in Questions

To make a question in the Simple Present Tense, the auxiliary Do or Does is put at the beginning of the question before the subject. Do not miss the question mark.

- We add Do at the beginning of the affirmative sentence to change it into a question.

Examples:

Affirmative : You speak English.

Question : Do you speak English?

Affirmative : He likes chocolates.

Question : Does he like chocolates?

NOTE : There can be other words before DO and Does such as question words (who, what, where etc.)

• DID in Questions -

To make questions in the past tense, the auxiliary DID is normally put at the beginning of the question or before the main subject. There can be question words (why, where, what etc) before Did.

NOTE – With 'Did' you always use the first form of the verb, whether in statements, or questions.

Examples:

- a) Did he call you?
- b) Did Mr. Robert attend the meeting?
- c) Did the guest arrive late?

d) Why did you shout at him?

II. RECAPITULATION OF THE PREVIOUS LESSON -

In the previous lesson on Do/Does/Did (Dated- 24th April 2020), we learnt that –

- Forms of the verb To Do
 - ❖ Present Tense – Do/Does
 - ❖ Past Tense – Did
- Do and Does are the present form of the verb Do which is used in Present Simple form.
I/ you / we / they – Do
He/ she/ it – Does
- Do is used with plural nouns in the present tense.
- Does is used in the case of third person singular. Example: He, she, it, Rohan, dog, tree etc.
- Don't and Doesn't are normally used to make negative sentences in the present tense.
- Did is used with both singular and plural nouns in the past tense.
- In the past tense 'didn't' is used to make a negative sentence for all subjects (I, you, we, he, they, she, it)
