CLASS IV TERM 1 (2020 - 2021) SUBJECT- ENGLISH

TOPIC – PUNCTUATION

Name - _____ CLASS / SEC _____ Date: 26.05.2020

Punctuation marks make reading and writing easier. These symbols help us to organize our sentences. They let readers know when a question is being asked. They let readers know when to pause. They can also help readers to understand when someone is excited. There are over a dozen punctuation marks in English, but today we are going to learn about four. They are the period (full stop), question mark, exclamation mark and comma.

Now watch this interesting story 'The day punctuations came to town...' to understand the use of each punctuation mark clearly.

I'm an exclamation mark. I'm full of surprise. Every time you see me, I widen your eyes!

I am a full stop. I look just like a dot. Every time you see me, you must stop.

I am a question mark. I ask a lot of things. Every time you see me, I wonder...what will it be?

I am a comma. I look just like a hook. Every time you see me, slow down and look!

When to Use a Comma

1. Use a comma to separate words in a series.
2. Use a comma to separate a city and a state.
3. Use a comma to separate the day and year in a date.
4. Use a comma after the greeting and closing in a friendly letter.

Capital letters

We use capital letters:

For names: Mary, England, London,

Months: January, February...

Days of the week: Monday, Tuesday...

At the beginning of the sentence: I like apples.

After full stop: Mary likes apples. She eats 5 apples a day.
