India is a country of diversity. It has endless varieties of food, clothes, religions, festivals, culture, art forms, dances etc. In order to inculcate national integration and celebrate unity in diversity, let's extend our research on one of the major states in the northeast-SIKKIM. Let's collect information on any one major festival celebrated in Sikkim and present artistically on ¼ pastel sheet (using pictures, drawing and adding relevant information to it)

Do not forget to mention...how, why and when it is celebrated.
