GULAB JAMUN SHRIKHAND JARS

Gulab Jamun Shrikhand Jars have a cookie crust topped with creamy shrikhand and melt-in-mouth gulab jamuns! These pretty jars make the perfect festive treat!

INGREDIENTS

- Kesar- Pista Shrikhand.....1.25 cups
- Cookies.....6
- Unsalted butter melted & slightly cooled.....1 tablespoon
- Gulab jamuns cut in half.....4
- Nuts, edible silver leaves optional, to garnish & decorate

INSTRUCTIONS

- Make shrikhand beforehand. You can either go in for homemade recipe or use readymade brand that you like.
- Add cookies to a food processor.
- Pulse to crush the cookies and then transfer them to a bowl.

- Add melted butter to the bowl and mix it with the cookies until the mixture resembles crumbs.
- Now take the jars and add around 2 teaspoons cookie crumbs in each serving glass. Press lightly using your fingers.
- Pipe shrikhand into the jars above the cookie crust.
- Cut the gulab jamuns into half and top each jar with sliced jamun.
- Repeat the same process with the remaining jars. Place the jars in the refrigerator to chill for few hours. Shrikhand becomes thick as it chills so it's important to freeze.
- Once chilled, serve immediately. You may garnish with nuts or decorate with edible silver leaves!

Q3. Read the given passage and answer the questions that follow:

- 1 It was Saturday, and Mindy was getting ready for her birthday party. In just three hours, all of her friends would arrive with presents. Every year, Mindy and her mom made a cinnamon cake fresh on the day of her birthday party, and Mindy thought this year would be no different. Excited, she waited for her mom in the kitchen.
- 2 Mindy's mother came into the kitchen and took her apron from a hook on the wall. Instead of putting it on, though, she lifted it over Mindy's head. Surprised, Mindy stood as her mom tied the strings of the apron behind her.
- 3 "Mindy, I think you're old enough to mix the batter yourself this year. I'm sure you can do it. Remember what we say?" "Yes... Baking is just a little sugar and a little spice." "That's right," said Mindy's mom. "Now, go ahead and start. I'm going to go blow up the balloons." With that, she left Mindy alone in the kitchen. Maybe her mom was right; maybe there wasn't much to it. Carefully, Mindy measured out the ingredients and poured them into a big bowl. She mixed the batter until it was faultlessly smooth. Carefully, she poured the batter into the cake pan. Then she called to her mom. "It's ready to go into the oven," Mindy said.
- 4 Her mom turned on the oven, set the temperature, and popped the pan into the oven. Mindy had actually done it! When the cake came out, though, something seemed wrong. Mindy tried to poke it with a toothpick, just as her mother always did. The toothpick wouldn't go through. The cake was almost as hard as a rock! "I did exactly what I was supposed to," Mindy moaned. "I was so alert! I didn't put the eggs in until last, and I measured the baking soda exactly."
- 5 "Baking soda? Oh, dear. That's the problem. You were supposed to use baking powder." Mindy began to cry. "I'm sorry, mom. I tried so hard." Mindy's mom gave her a big hug. "I'm the one who's sorry. I expected too much and I was hard on you. "Now, let's try again," said Mindy's mom. "This time, we'll do it together."
