FORMATION OF THE UN

The Second World War caused large-scale destruction. The countries prayed and hoped for world peace. Representatives of 51 countries met at San Francisco in USA on 24th October 1945 and signed a charter. This charter created the United Nations Organisation.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE UN - New York

SECRETARY- GENERAL OF THE UN- The chief administrative officer of the UN.

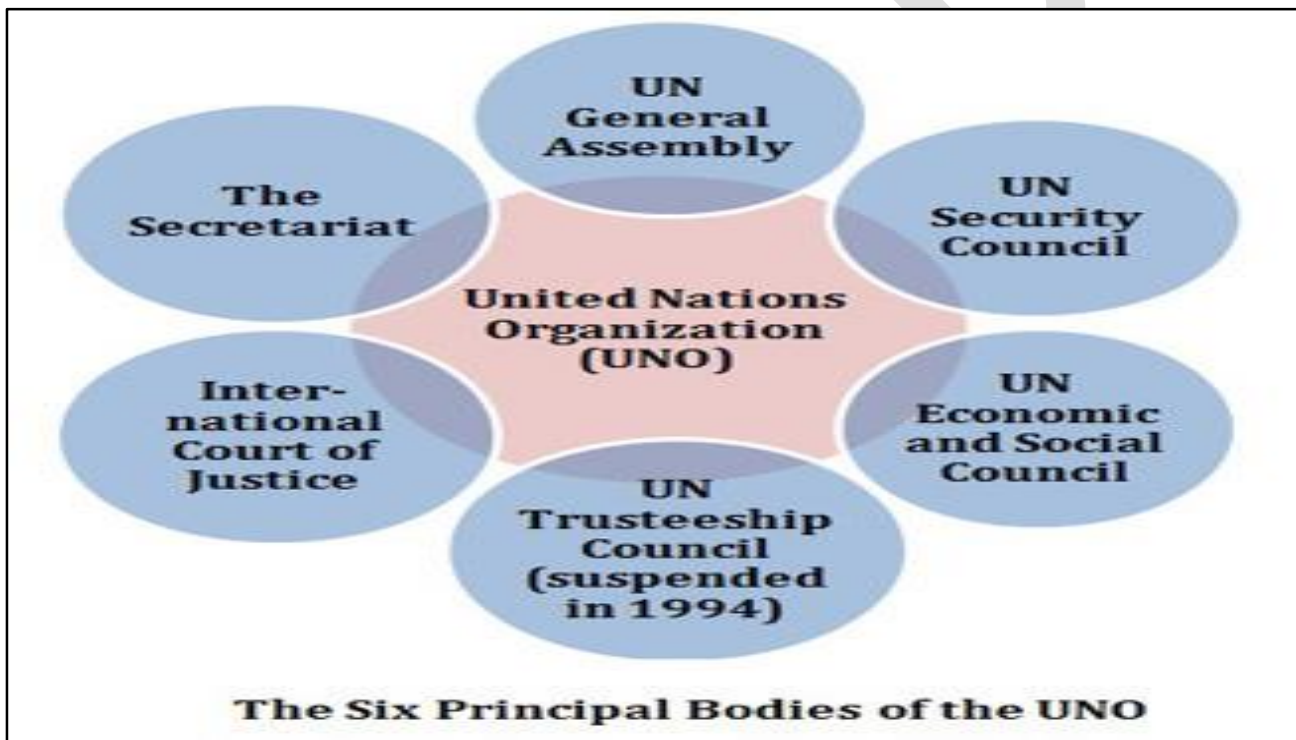

THE TERM 'UNITED NATIONS'- It was first given by Franklin D Roosevelt, the then President of the United States of America.

24th October is observed as the United Nations Day every year.

OBJECTIVES OF THE UNITED NATIONS

- To promote peace in the world.
- To promote cooperation among nations.
- To improve the social and economic conditions of the people.
- To protect human rights.
- The UN doesn't make or impose laws. It is a platform where issues are discussed and solutions are worked out. It strives to make the world safe for the present and future generations.
