And again, nothing came from the bamboo seed. But I did not quit on the bamboo. He said.

"In year three there was still nothing from the bamboo seed. But I would not quit.

In year four, again, there was nothing from the bamboo seed. I would not quit." He said.

"Then in the fifth year a tiny _____ emerged from the earth. Compared to the fern it was seemingly small and insignificant...But just 6 months later the bamboo rose to over 100 feet tall.

It had spent the five years growing roots. Those roots made it _____ and gave it what it needed to _____. I would not give any of my creations a challenge it could not handle."

He asked me. "Did you know, my child, that all this time you have been struggling, you have actually been growing roots".

"I would not quit on the bamboo. I will never quit on you."

"Don't compare yourself to others." He said, "The bamboo had a different _____ than the fern.

Yet they both make the forest beautiful. "Your time will come", God said to me.

"You will rise high".

"How high should I _____?" I asked.

"How high will the bamboo rise?" He asked in return.

"As high as it can?" I questioned. "Yes."

He said, "Give me glory by _____ as high as you can."

I left the forest and brought back this story. I hope these words can help you see that God will never give up on you. Never, never, never give up.
