❖ CACA LIFE SKILLS

Under Project CACA numerous sessions and interactive activities were held in Classes III to V, covering topics such as managing emotions, enhancing communication, safeguarding against strangers, and boosting self-esteem, among others. These dialogues equip our students with the necessary knowledge and abilities to communicate confidently and safeguard themselves from potential risks.

❖ Class IV – English – Puppet Making:-

An activity was conducted in Class 4 based on Toy Pedagogy wherein children made different kinds of puppets such as stick puppet, sock puppet, finger puppet and so on. They used waste material and other things easily available at home. The puppets were of various animals of their choice. Then, they were used in the classroom to showcase how the animals talk. Children tried mimicking the sounds made by a number of animals through individual and group performances.

❖ EK Bharat Shresth Bharat (EBSB) Activities

Class	Subject	Topic	ACTIVITY
III	English	Toy making on Indian diversity	Art & Craft
V	Social Science	Sikkim Alphabet	Understanding Sikkim alphabet
IV	English	Language Translation	Language Reels

➤ Sikkim Alphabet

Ek Bharat Shresth Bharat is a mission to bring all the states closer to each other by understanding the varied culture, language, customs and traditions, cuisine, costume and economic activities. Sikkim is paired with Delhi. As part of the EBSB activity series, the students of Class 5 practised writing the alphabet of Sikkim. They read out the words aloud which sounded similar to the Hindi Varnamala.

➤ Identification/translation and dissemination of similar proverbs in the language of paired state-Sikkim

Language building video, made under the initiative of EBES was designed to foster language development and communication skills among the children of Class IV. It created a supportive and interactive environment where student-pairs learned language skills while having fun. The pairs learned about Sikkim cultures, traditions, and language. It widened a sense of cultural awareness and cultural literacy.

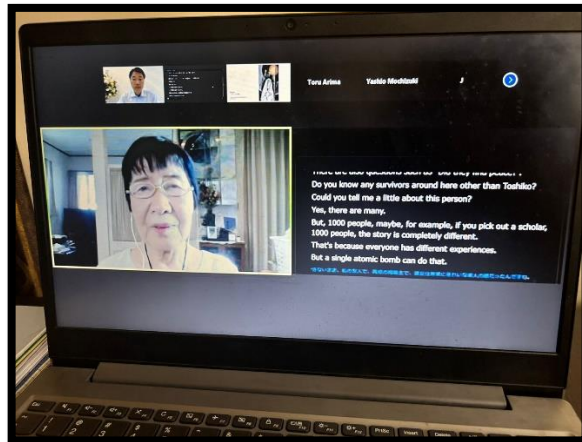

➤ As a part of 'Ek Bharat Sresth Bharat' initiative, students of class 3 prepared toys and crafts representing the great Indian culture using waste material. Students found their expression of the vast Indian culture through the activity and further shared insights about their presentation.

❖ IDS (International Dimension in Schools) – GOI Peace Event

An online interactive session with Ms Toshika Tanaka- an A- bomb survivor from Hiroshima, Japan was organised by the Goi Peace Foundation as a part of Peace initiative on 16th September'23. She recalled and shared her horrifying firsthand experience of her survival in the historic bombings at Hiroshima and Nagasaki in August 1945.

Ms Toshika proved to be a very positive and an inspirational influence on the audience especially during the question-answer session as she literally engineered their thought process towards making peace not only with themselves but also in their families, communities, societies and eventually across the globe. She laid emphasis on Forgiveness as the key to creating Peace among nations.

❖ Peace Pals International 26th Annual Art Contest for 2023 –

Peace Pals International organised an Art Exhibition & Awards in partnership with Unity Earth on the theme Unity. Youth aged 5-16 were invited to participate. Some of the artworks done by the Art Club children for the Peace Pals competition are attached herewith:

❖ HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MONTH (if any):-

➤ Happy Morning Mantra

The first *Morning Mantra* episode of this session was presented by the students of *Class 3 I*. The Mantra was based on the theme of Rakshabandhan. It celebrated the initiatives of BBPS students:

The Mantra is based on the theme of Rakshabandhan. It celebrates the initiatives of BBPS students:

- ◇ sending rakhi - the thread of protection to our protectors, soldiers
- ◇ tying rakhi to our helpers

The students tried to spread the message that Rakshabandhan is about protecting and caring for our loved ones and doesn't limit itself to brothers or sisters solely.
